

The Friends of Hopewell Furnace

Presenting “In the Shadow of Liberty” a feature film about the discovery of James Oronoco Dexter’s home. Dexter was a free African American coachman who lived in colonial Philadelphia. Born a slave, he was one of the founding members of the first US autonomous, black church. Part Two shown on

Sunday, February 9 @ 1 pm

Hopewell Furnace Conference Center

2 Mark Bird Lane, Elverson, PA 19520

Free

Refreshments